

JANUARY 2017

goo.gl/5h2C5X

FILMMAKERS FOR THE WOMEN'S MARCH ON WASHINGTON

FILMMAKERS FOR THE WOMEN'S MARCH ON WASHINGTON

Upload a clip of video, a still, or a full day of shooting - all footage, any format, is welcome.

Filmmakers from all around the world - those attending the Women's March on Washington or Sister Marches - can upload their March footage directly to Internet Archive, and be included in the collection entitled FILMMAKERS FOR THE WOMEN'S MARCH ON WASHINGTON where each filmmaker will be individually credited with their work.

The Internet Archive is a non profit library that provides free public access to collections of digitized materials.

Sexism and racism can feel all-powerful and all-consuming, but looking at them through the lens of history serves as a reminder that these are social constructs that can be changed. Historical events, like Women's March on Washington, need to be documented and archived as part our history. In a democracy, records of history belong to its people.

In an effort to accurately represent the diversity and breadth of the Women's Marches, we encourage you to cover the news that doesn't make the news: stories of the underrepresented, of community and of resistance - use your video in the fights for women's rights.

Please include some shots with landmarks in the background to visually identify the locations.

Please read the "Uploading your content to the Internet Archive" and "Uploading Instructions" fully before shooting.

Thanks for participating!

Uploading your content to the Internet Archive

You may contribute content to the Internet Archive if it's in the public domain or if you own the rights to it. Please refer to the Terms of Use: https://archive.org/about/terms.php

Please note that if you wish to be contacted with inquiries regarding your item, you'll need to supply public contact information. Some choose to provide a web address, mailing address, or other means of contact in the description text for the item.

Uploading Instructions:

1. Go to Internet Archive: <http://www.archive.org>
2. Click on "Sign In" and it will take you to the page where you can register for an account.
3. Click on "Register for Free" and enter a username and password.
4. Once you are logged in, find the upload arrow icon to the right of your username. Click on it to upload your footage.
5. This will take you to a page with a green "Upload Files" button. Click on this button.
6. Add files and complete the metadata form. Click the "Upload and Create Your Item" button.
7. When you upload, include in the "Subject Tags" metadata the term "filmmakers for the women's march on washington" Spelling must be correct, all lower case. EXAMPLE:

filmmakers for the women's march on washington

Please also indicate the country and city under the "more options - additional metadata" (this is especially important if you are shooting one of the Sister Marches)

It only adds one box at a time, hit the "Add additional metadata..." link to add your city.
EXAMPLE:

usa	country
dc	city

8. When the item creation tasks are complete you will automatically be redirected to your new item page.

For more info on how to upload go to:

https://archive.org/about/faqs.php#Uploading_Content

Uploading Format: We encourage users making contributions to the Archive to create as high quality versions of their media as possible. If your video and audio needs to be synced, please sync before uploading. Files larger than 2GB can be uploaded.

Whatever format you choose, please upload each file individually (you can submit multiple files per item), in an uncompressed format. Please note, .zip or .rar files will not be able to stream.

Visit the Filmmakers for the Women's March on Washington collection page:

<https://archive.org/details/filmmakersforthewomensmarchonwashington>

and share the archive using this shortlink: goo.gl/5h2C5X

Frequently Asked Questions:

<https://archive.org/about/faqs.php>

Internet Archive

300 Funston Avenue

San Francisco, CA 94118

Tel: 415-561-6767

Fax: 415-840-0391

Web: archive.org

Email: info@archive.org